WHAT OTHERS HAVE SAID

As a father, this workshop helped me make more meaningful parenting decisions.

BRADLY, DAD

I found Susan's approach to be so refreshing. She doesn't scare parents, she empowers them.

NICOLE, CHILD NEUROPSYCHOLOGIST + MOM

I walked away thinking that the way we raise our kids can change the world... and we don't have to be perfect to do that.

OLIVIA, MOM

After I heard you articulate the parallels between leadership and interrupting meanness, it made perfect sense, and being more aware helps me better model it and share with my kids!

JENNY, MOM

I couldn't put the book down and the presentation was so helpful.

PAT, 3RD GRADE TEACHER

If our kids are to succeed in school and in life, we need these skills. The presentation was jam-packed with information.

CHRISTINE, MILITARY MOM
